Peek Inside the Book

Odysseus draped the towel over his shoulders and stretched his back. "You remember practicing with wooden swords? All the moves, the blocks, the counters, getting your footwork right, learning how to be in balance always?""Of course you were a hard master.""And you recall the first time you went into a real fight, with blood being shed and the fear of death in the air?""I do""The moves are the...

Our lives are spent sailing in the mist, hoping for a burst of sunlight that can make sense of who we are. David Gemmell, Lord of the Silver Bow

Reader's Opinions

Originally reviewed at Bookwraiths Reviews Wow, a book about the Trojan War with a new protagonist and a different - perhaps more realistic - portrayal of the Greek world and the reasons for the great struggle. I couldn't have ordered a book more suited to my tastes.After finishing my read, all I can say is that Lord of the Silver Bow...

WOW!! I love this book!!!!!! love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love
