Peek Inside the Book

What do most people mean when they say that ? So young. Something innocent, something appealing, something helpless. But youth is not that ! Youth is crude, youth is strong, youth is powerful-yes, and cruel ! And one thing more-youth is vulnerable.' Hercule Poirot Agatha Christie, Five Little Pigs

Maybe it is because I am an old man, but I find, M. Poirot, that there is something about the defenselessness of youth that moves me to tears. Youth is so vulnerable. It is so ruthless - so sure. So generous and so demanding. Agatha Christie, Five Little Pigs

Reader's Opinions

This was an interesting Hercule Poirot mystery because he is hired to looking into a murder of the past. A murder where the suspect was convicted and died in jail, but whose daughter has recently found out this terrible fact and doesn't believe her mother killed her father. I'm not at all surprised that HP took on this case, because...
