Peek Inside the Book

As accustomed as he was to the ever-expanding muscle of technology, even Jason Archer had to shake his head occasionally over what was really out there. Iris scanners were also...

few governmental institutions are more misunderstood and feared out of ignorance than the Federal Reserve Board. David Baldacci, Total Control

Reader's Opinions

This is a really long book at over 700 pages in paperback. I really liked the pace of the story, and the multiple twists that were taken. Infact, I thought I might know who the "bad guy" was, but kept changing my mind, and in the end, I was not totally correct anyway. I like...
