

KEEPING HER IN THE LIGHT

First there was darkness...A young woman wakes up to find herself in the dark. She does not know how she got there; she does not know why she is there. She feels for a light switch, thinking the light heals all pain. Then there was light...Death is only an instant. What light reveals to her is way past death itself. Realization sets in, and it...

Reader's Opinions

It was thrilling, A break from the books I read.I recommend this to everyone.I like their triple personality inside the body and how they admished the sydrome in her.
