

JUST ANOTHER SOLDIER: A YEAR ON THE GROUND IN IRAQ

The Iraqi war is distinguished by something new in the annals of armed conflict: soldier bloggers. Jason Christopher Hartley was one of the first to write a blog and his blog, Just Another Soldier, was one of the first to be written about (mentions in Time, the Wall Street Journal and an AP story). Now in book form, this is one soldier's view of the war... from the ground up. Jason Christopher Hartley,...

Peek Inside the Book

I'm obsessed with trying to recount events as accurately and honestly as possible, but in practice the only thing I'm really any good at is telling you how I feel. Jason Christopher Hartley, Just Another Soldier: A Year on the Ground in Iraq

My heart is full and my weapon is clean. Jason Christopher Hartley, Just Another Soldier: A Year on the Ground in Iraq

Reader's Opinions

Could not finish reading this book. More of a daily journal than anything. Not a real story. I understand that life of a grunt on the ground doesn't have a "plot" as such, but this just wasn't doing it for me. I thank every service member for their service and sacrifice, but something about the writing style, just left me without looking...
