Reader's Opinions

Very classic, good stuff. Quick story. Heroes with valor and all that stuff. Pretty high-level reading, which I doubt would make it in today's market, but is fun to read and remember. See my full review at: <http://elitistbookreviews.blogspot.co...>

Originally published on my blog here in June 1999. It is appropriate for the final volume of Moorcock's series to share its title with the series as a whole, and with the mysterious object that lies at the heart of the story, the Runestaff. For it is here that the influence of the Runestaff becomes apparent and here we also get to see...
