

HUDSON TAYLOR: IN EARLY YEARS- THE GROWTH OF A SOUL

The classic two-volume story (hardback) of Hudson Taylor and the founding of the CIM (now OMF). This longer, more detailed account includes many of Taylor's personal writings that express his vision, faith and frustrations. It also provides a careful account of the many miracles that took the young mission agency into the inland and barbaric provinces of China. The first volume covers...

Reader's Opinions

I'm trying to go back and rate some of my favorites from years past and get some good nonfiction books on my shelves! This book is not an easy read by any means...over 1000 pages with both volumes...but it is rewarding. I do think the first volume is a little more interesting, but I did persevere and I did finish! I would suggest reading...
