

THE WINTER GHOSTS

By the author of the "New York Times"-bestselling "Labyrinth," a story of two lives touched by war and transformed by courage. In the winter of 1928, still seeking some kind of resolution to the horrors of World War I, Freddie is traveling through the beautiful but forbidding French Pyrenees. During a...

Peek Inside the Book

We are who we are, because of those we choose to love and because of those who love us. Kate Mosse, The Winter Ghosts

Reader's Opinions

I would have liked this book more if it was a short story as opposed to a full length novel. Sadly, the length of this book seemed unnecessary to me, not enough was going on.
