

THE GEM

Life gives you what you want. But you have to fight for what you need. Charlie Chastain is an oddity, and it doesn't bother her a bit. Her life in Ft. Laramie—hunting game, up to her elbows in carcasses, stitching hide clothing—suits her independent spirit. So...

Reader's Opinions

There are some historical romance series where each book works wonderfully as a standalone, but in this case, it was readily apparent that I was jumping into a story already in progress. This was the first of a number of problems I encountered while reading. It wasn't a bad book, but there was very little subtlety and an awful lot of...

Western Romance This book is part of a series; it can be read as a stand alone. Miss Charlotte Marie Chastain, better known as Charlie, is not your ordinary frock wearing, every hair in place female. Miss Charlie is just a little odd and a tomboy of the first order; she...
