

KILLOBYTE

Walter Toland has the heart and soul of a hero - but his physical body is confined to a wheelchair. He lost both his legs and his job in the line of duty as a policeman. Baal Curran is a high school senior, full of the promise and heartbreak of her first love, and her first loss. The needle scarring from her diabetes drove away the only boy ever to care for her. Now she has...

Reader's Opinions

I first read this book in what I seem to remember as fourth grade, as the Internet was coming into its own. Around this time I was first exposed to the burgeoning AOL chatroom scene, mysterious and inviting, with implications that could hardly be grasped. It...

This is one of those novels that you just overlook if you're going by genre. It's not fantasy, not really. It's some strange mix of science fiction, with just a little cyberpunk. people compile lists of their favorite VR novels, and most of them never gave this a chance..because hey, isn't Piers Anthony that guy who wrote those stupid...
