Reader's Opinions

I'm having very mixed feelings about Allegiance.....partly because I thought Omega was the final book in the series, and I felt like Susannah Sandlin did an excellent job of tying the series up in a pretty bow and would be moving forward with a spin-off series. Even though she mention she might be continuing the series in an interview...

This is such a great series. Next to each book having a stand alone romance, there's an overall action storyline that runs through this series. And things are getting more and more tense with each book!! I really liked Cage when he appeared earlier in the series, but wasn't too happy he seemed to connect with Melissa. I am not a big fan...
