

SANDMAN

People put their lives in doctors' hands every day--but in no other situation is this so literally true as the moment the anesthesiologist looks casually down at you and says, "You'll be going off to sleep now..."What if the eyes that gaze down at you in that moment of trust and surrender belong to a madman? What if, as you feel yourself slipping away, you see something...

Reader's Opinions

One of the most horrifying novels of the suspense thriller genre is Sean Costello's Sandman. For I've read dozens of page-turning, on-the-edge-of-your-seat thrillers by some of the greatest authors of the genre, and it is without a doubt that Costello's Sandman will go down in literary history as being one of the most terrifying and...
