

THE STREET SWEEPER

How breathtakingly close we are to lives that at first seem so far away. From the civil rights struggle in the United States to the Nazi crimes against humanity in Europe, there are more stories than people passing each other every day on the bustling streets...

Peek Inside the Book

What else is life from the time you were born but a struggle to matter, at least to someone? Elliot Perlman, The Street Sweeper

Reader's Opinions

I "hope" to write a more specific review at a later date. I can't quite figure out how to write a review that does the book justice and captures the essence of the book and...
