

LAUGHING WITHOUT AN ACCENT: ADVENTURES OF AN IRANIAN AMERICAN, AT HOME AND ABROAD

In the bestselling memoir Funny in Farsi, Firoozeh Dumas recounted her adventures growing up Iranian American in Southern California. Now she again mines her rich Persian heritage in Laughing Without an Accent, sharing stories both tender and humorous on being a citizen of the world, on her well-meaning family, and on amusing cultural conundrums, all told with insights into the universality of the human condition. (Hint: It may have to do with brushing and flossing daily.) With dry wit and a bold spirit, Dumas puts her own...

Peek Inside the Book

Most immigrants agree that at some point, we become permanent foreigners, belonging neither here nor there. Many tomes have been written trying to describe this feeling of floating between worlds but never fully landing. Artists, using every known medium from words to film to Popsicle sticks, have attempted to encapsulate the struggle of trying to hang on to the solid ground...

Here, those kids are called nerds and geeks and dorks. This may be the only country where people make fun of the smart kids. Now thats stupid. I only hope that the engineer...
