

RELIGION AND THE SPIRITUAL IN CARL JUNG

Religion and Psychology Carl Jung, the eminent Swiss psychoanalyst, referred to the Bible more often than any other bibliographical source. This makes his work a natural wellspring for those interested in the intersection of religion and psychology. Religion and the Spiritual in Carl Jung confirms and further develops what supporters and critics of Jung already know: His psychology positions the human being within a religious realm in which we experience a psychic reality constructed within a mysterious web of archetypal patterns that arise out...
