

KRITIK AV DET RENA FÖRNUFTET

Kritik av det rena förnuftet är Kants mest betydande arbete. Det utgör grunden i Kants kritiska projekt och är kanske det mest inflytelserika filosofiska verket i modern tid. Endast en mindre del av verket har tidigare varit översatt till svenska. Den nu föreliggande översättningen bygger på den andra upplaga som Kant själv gav ut 1787, men de passager i den första upplagan (utkom 1781) som ändrats har här också översatts (och placerats...

Peek Inside the Book

Such is the genesis of these general convictions of mankind, so far as they depend on rational grounds; and this public property not only remains undisturbed, but is even raised to greater importance, by the doctrine that the schools have no right to arrogate to themselves a more profound insight into a matter of general human concernment...

That all our knowledge begins with experience there can be no doubt. For how should the faculty of knowledge be called into activity, if not by objects which affect our senses and which, on the one hand, produce representations by themselves or on the other, rouse the activity...

Reader's Opinions

I thank God for sending Kant to the world, and for everything Kant had brought into the world. It's impossible to imagine what the world is like without him. Kant is not just a hero. He's a prophet of the new age; age of reason. Kant was one of the first philosophers who think about the very process of thinking. He showed us how the...
