Reader's Opinions

Dense, difficult, and occasionally overwhelming, Lossky's Mystical Theology is one of the twentieth century's most important works of Eastern Orthodox theology. Lossky, in line with other twentieth-century Orthodox, probably overstates the difference between East and West in both theological method and doctrine. Still, he captures...

This was my first book that was all about Orthodox theology. Who knew that I would anything about Christianity that would ever make any sense to me? Certainly not the me from even 1 year ago, let alone 10. I have a great respect for the Orthodox Church that I can only see continuing to grow from here on out, not just based on theology,...
