Peek Inside the Book

Never believe what they say; they always lie. I have a saying: Whatever they say, do the opposite, and you'll never go wrong. Tom Upton, Mourning Doves and other stories.

An idiot will do anything, no matter how stupid, because he is afraid of what everybody will think of him if he does nothing. A genius, on the other hand, is content to do nothing, no matter what people think, if he can't find anything...

Reader's Opinions

17 short stories. Some creepy, some sad. All of them make you think. The Scent of Evil  I'm pretty sure that I didn't get the point of this story. The Family Coffin  I liked this story for a little while - wondering what was to become of the coffin. It had such potential... Burning Bridges * I really liked this clever story. The...

This book of short stories was great. As with all books of short stories, some were better than others. Some of the stories were snapshots of something going on in the life of a character and that was it. Those always leave me feeling sort of unsatisfied, but I still liked...
