

'TIL THE END: A NOVEL OF MURDER, ADDICTION, AND LIES

Ryan, Tyler, Avery, and Jacob are high school football stars. Everyone looks up to them. They're living the life that young boys and men dream of and are right at the point of having it all: a state championship, college paid for, a chance for big money and even more glory in the NFL. It's all there in front of them; the future they and everyone expects. Then something happens that could bring it all crashing down. And they can't tell the truth because...

Reader's Opinions

Some great friendships are forged in our youth especially in team sports. The stories of four friends are told in this book which is set in Detroit, between 1988 and 1993. Ryan, Tyler, Jacob and Avery are high school football stars, young men with a future, looking forward to fame, fortune, money and success. High spirited and with the...

The devil had come to collect because of what we did at Torch Lake Do you think enough has been paid? Michigan author Joseph Patrick33 is likely using a nom de plume: that would explain the 33 tacked on the end of his name. It is nearly impossible to believe that this is his debut into the literary field as TIL THE END is a major achievement...
